Oh Scully you'er a rouge says &c
Turning tenants from their hom- says &c
They had always paid their rent but the tyrant not content
To no ice them he went says &c

It is the tyrant Scully says
He had steel upon his belly says &c
He got plenty of the lead he got wounded in the head
What a pity he's n t dead says &c

Before he went away says &c
We gave him bread and ter says &c
The gentry did agree that from the mount r feed
His on the ground did bleed says &c

Before the tenants fled etc
We left two of them dead says etc
We kill'd Gormon on the floor and the Peelers at the door
We thought we had kil'd more

To the Peelers Schully said says etc
What good can you do the dead says etc
Come protect me from my foes
But we prime'd and would not go says etc

I hear you'r very ill says etc
Since you got the leaden pill says etc
Your dose of phisick it was great most dismal was your fate
May it never operate says etc

Remember brave Tipperary says e c
Where the boys are brisk and ay
Bieve me its no lark in dayligh or in dark
They never lost their mark says etc

You now are in the lurch says etc
Since you turn'd from the Chu ch says etc
You for took the holy creed it was a sinful deed
And disgrace'd your ancient breed says etc

Here's success to brave Moor says
He's a true friend to the poor says
He's an honest man we'll support him like brave Dan
And we'll pace him in the van says etc

Let the landlords be awrra says etc
And of their knowledge box t ke care says etc
